A large force is reported to be moving from the south and east with the intention of cutting off the Russians communication by way of Vladivostok.

Tokio, Feb. 27, 6 p. m.—The only announcement today from the headquarters of the Japanese armies at Manchuria is that the Japanese are still in effect that the Russians continued a bombardment Saturday and Sunday, that the weather is very cold and that it is snowing.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—Gen. Kuroki has telegraphed to the emperor, according to the news of Feb. 25, as follows:

At 5 o'clock this morning the enemy encircled Tsinchotchen.

"Exact reports of yesterday's losses have not yet been received. There are twelve officers and about 300 men wounded in hospital in Mukden. The percentage of killed is very large. The commander of the detachment reports acts of bravery by many detached bodies of troops."

Gen. Kuroki, in other instances many cases of close fighting and bayonet charges, and concludes:

Forty wounded Russians arrived at Mukden yesterday and 400 are expected today. The indications point to an unusual struggle.

A blustering snow storm all day is making the threatened conflict. The right of the Japanese attack is in mostly wooded and high mountainous favorable to the Russian operations.

The force of Japanese of unknown strength joined with Chinese brigadiers were repulsed and still hold the road to the Russians in that region. The camouflaged along the Russian center diminished in intensity yesterday. There is no evidence of activity on the part of the Japanese, who were strong, but the Russian outposts commenced to approach the passes occupied by us."

Under this rate of wages it will be possible for a bricklayer to make $67.20 a week, 40 hours on hour, if he works 10 hours a day. For every hour overtime they get double time. The men say that this really is so much, but that the other employed bricklayers in the city are making $60 a week.

Theodosia, (Kaffa) Crimea, Feb. 27.—The recent disturbances here have been greatly exaggerated. One Jew here died as the result of street fighting growing out of religious and denominational differences on the part of Jewish adherents. The latter paraded the streets, forcing a stoppage of work and shouting "Down with the czar," "Give us equality." A rope was hung across the street, around the statue of Alexander III, with a noose of rope, turning it when the police dispersed the crowd. Some unimportant conflicts occurred between Christians and Jews, the former declaring that there were still people in Russia who would defend the czar.

NEW ORLEANS HAS A DOCK FIRE CAUSING LOSS OF $5,000,000

Property of the Illinois Central Railroad Is Destroyed.

Will Prove a Serious Blow to City's Immense Export Trade.

New Orleans, Feb. 27.—With the fire that destroyed its immense export terminals still burning, though beyond the power to do further damage, the Illinois Central railroad announces today that as soon as the ruins cool, forces will be put to work to clear away the debris, and Stuyvesant docks and elevators will be promptly rebuilt on a more elaborate and substantial scale. The Illinois Central officials of the road are today engaged in the formulation of plans that will enable them to handle the traffic now on its way here from the West and avoid any material diversion of freight from this city. Conservative estimates figure the immediate loss by fire at $5,000,000, divided as follows:

Two elevators, warehouses, sheds, 320,000 bushels grain, $350,000; 15,000 barrels sugar, $300,000; cotton cake, thirty-two carloads, $97,000; lumber, $16,025; cement, $56,250; meat twenty cars, $10,000; sundries, $150,000; $1,000,000 ship damaged, $3,000 city fire department, two engines and six horses, $15,000; private property and other damage, $216,000. The Illinois Central company carried its own insurance, and the contents of the various elevators and sheds were insured in local and foreign agencies.

The wharves covered 4,750 feet, over 1,000 feet of ten blocks of this wharf were destroyed. The remainder, at the upper end of the terminals being saved through the fact that the wind blew strongly in the direction of the flames.

The Texas & Pacific has an immense elevator at Chalmette, the property of Eschle, leased to Harris, Scott & Co. of Chicago, cost $300,000 when built, and Elevator E, which was operated by the Illinois Central, cost $400,000.

Again, no one was lost in the fire though there were many narrow escapes of those who were engaged in fighting the flames, owing to its rapid spread, and firemen were constantly engaged by debris of all kinds that was whirled through the air. The escape of two fire engines was cut off and their crews had to run for their lives. Driver Charles Richardson of No. 1, being painfully hurt. The fire started in the conveyors to Elevator E, it spread with remarkable rapidity.

Gen. Manager Preston of the latter road told the men of the Chalmette company to the Illinois Central that it was probable that the pier, elevators and sheds could be restored within a year and that they would be made more extensive and substantial than ever. The fire originated from spontaneous combustion. Throughout the night and today many messages passed between the company and the insurance companies of the company in New York and Chicago and arrangements were set on foot to take care of the traffic now en route here and to provide for handling the export and import trade of the city.

In addition to the railroad property the fire destroyed many small stores and dwelling houses, small residences and many pathetic scenes were witnessed as the poor occupants of them struggled to save their small belongings at the risk of their lives.

RUNS AMUCK ON LINER.

An Insane Italian Stabs Several, One Fatally.

New York, Feb. 27.—Believing that the Mafia was pursuing him and his life was in danger, an insane Italian who was returning from his city to his home in Italy, ran amuck in the steamer of the liner Carpathia, during her last voyage to Naples, and stabbed several of his fellow passengers, one of them so seriously that he died from his wounds. The murderer was arrested and confined over the the authorities at Naples.

According to the story told by the officers of the Carpathia, which arrived Saturday, the murderer was a stone-faced man who had been confined for several years. When he took passage for Naples he was liberally supplied with money and appeared to be in normal mental condition. As the steamer was nearing Gibraltar, however, he suddenly lost his reason, and becoming uncontrollable, sprang upon a fellow passenger and severed his jugular vein with a razor. Two other men were badly cut by the razor before the maniac was overpowered.

The man told the officers of the Carpathia he was being pursued by agents of the Mafia who sought his life, and that he had acted in self-defense.

INCREASE SHOWN

Building Permits Are Double Those of Last Year.

The Indications Point to Healthy Revival In Building Circles.

If the records made during January and February are maintained, over twice as much building will be done in Duluth during the year 1905 as was done in 1904, according to the records of the building inspector's office.

During the twenty-seven days of the month of February which have already passed, 1,000 permits for buildings of the value of $65,000 have been taken out. February of last year the total value of the permits issued during the month of February amounted to but $46,983, or slightly more than one-half of the value of those issued in the month of January.

In January of this year the total value of the permits was $30,901, while January of last year the total value for the first two months of this year is, therefore, $28,001, compared with $10,000 in the first two months of 1904.

The total value of all buildings for which permits were issued last year amounted to $1,000,000, the average per permit ratio maintained for the twelve months of the year 1904, the permits issued for the first two months of this year, to between $100,000 and $120,000.

Five large permits were issued during the last month. The largest was for a brick residence for T. F. Cole, a brick store and office building on First street, to be erected by George C. Cole, of the George C. Cole and Sons store by the N. J. Thompson Co. on Superior street, $1,000. One of the brewing companies also took out a license for a large cold storage warehouse, to cost $2,500.

Permits were also issued for five houses costing $1,000 and upward, four costing $2,000 and upward, one costing $3,000 and upward.

Bands and small permits for minor repairs and additions to buildings, and for the repairing of wooden supports with stone foundations.

GREEN CARNATION

Produced After Six Years of Endeavor.

Los Angeles, Feb. 27.—A. C. Stillson has been trying for six years in California and in the East to produce a green carnation and last month he succeeded. He refuses to explain the process, except that it requires a secret.

Except for the stripes of green, the blossom is a duplicate of the ordinary white carnation. The petals are tinged with yellow, green, yellow; from center to edge in deep stripes.

These marks separate them from all other carnations. The petals are plainly distinguished from the ordinary crimson and white flowers with them in the vase.

BUSINESS GOOD

Cold Spell Resulted In the Shipment of Much Coal.

Movement of Timber Products Also Large on Railroads.

The severely cold weather prevailing during the first part of February meant a considerable increase in the freight business of some of the railroads entering Duluth, because of the great demand for coal from various points throughout the Northwest. Particularly is this true of the Northern Pacific, which was kept busy transporting the commodity from Duluth to places along the line. A very material increase in the shipments was noted as a result of the cold spell.

The movement of pulpwood has been quite a factor in the calculations of the railroad men during the last month or two, though there was not nearly so much of it shipped as was the case last year, when every farmer through the northern part of the state, as well as in northern Wisconsin, was putting in his pulpwood getting it to market. So much of the wood was hauled to the railroads by farmers and other shippers, some of them doing business on quite an extensive scale, the others with a few cords and a consequent delay in shipments.

For a brief period this year the Northern Pacific experienced a slight shortage of cars to handle the pulpwood, but the shortage was not of a very serious nature, and was caused by the fact that the cars could be employed to greater profit in other lines of transportation. There has been very little demand, however, in the transporting of any of the timber products, although the business from this source has been good.

GETS A PUFF.

Mart Adson Liked in Red Lake County.

Mart Adson, general agent of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railway, came in for a very complimentary little "puff" in the last issue of the Red Lake Courier.

"Red Lake county has turned out a number of prominent citizens of the state," says the Courier, "but none has reached a greater degree of success than Mart Adson. Ten years ago he was working on a farm near Red Lake Falls, and later was employed in Frank E. Hunt's hardware store. He is now railroad passenger agent of the Duluth & South Shore road, and one of the prominent men in the transportation world. Mr. Adson was not a very good farmer, nor did he show more than mediocre ability in the hardware field. He found his vocation in life in the railroads. Mr. Adson's success proves that a man of genuine worth and ability will somehow and somewhere reach his goal even under the most adverse circumstances of early life."

Railroad Notes.

Several traveling freight and passenger agents of the different railroads are the city today.

H. D. Weber of St. Paul, traveling freight and passenger agent for the Great Western line, and Assistant General Freight Agent G. F. Thomas of the same line, also with headquarters at St. Paul, were here this morning.

G. C. McRae, assistant general passenger agent of the Omaha, in the city from St. Paul. The passenger business over his line is very good at present, he says.

W. H. Krake of Minneapolis and H. G. Krake of Chicago, Northwestern freight agent and general agent for the Peary Marquette line, are in the city today.

A. McMonagle, vice president of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railway, returned yesterday from a trip up West Baden and Hot Springs.

The big steamship Minnesota of the Great Northern Steamship Company, from Seattle, Seattle, for its second trip to Chinese and Japanese ports about about May 1, according to word received at the local offices of the Great Northern Railway company.

SHOT HIMSELF IN DREAM.

Thought That He Was Firing at Robbers.

Winsted, Conn., Feb. 27.—In a dream that he was fighting robbers, George Yale, aged 71, a citizen of Norfolk, who has been blind for forty-one years, seized a loaded revolver lying beside him in bed and fired it into himself in the right leg above the knee.

Groping his way to a towel fastened to his injured leg and went back to bed. At daylight he called his hired man, a physician, and the doctor, who had not been extracted, but no serious consequences are expected.

STUDY OF COLORS

Important One for Woman of Fashions.

Now that every brilliant shade of the rainbow has boldly stepped forth, and we are prepared to meet the soft, dreamy pastels, my ready faith would do well to take counsel with self and make a serious study of this important detail of artistic gowning, says an exchange.

There is another phase to this question which must needs be discreetly handled, which is the important consideration of choosing one's gowning in relation to the time and place of wearing.

Almost any becoming light color looks well in a drawing room, and almost any becoming color that is not too brilliant or striking, looks well on the street in winter, but there are certain colors that are more becoming with the winter, and these things should be remembered when shopping for winter clothes. Some colors discordant in doors have a great charm in an outdoor setting.

The woman who wore a red dress to the opera last winter found herself on very bad terms with her background, for the red boxes not only deadened the effect of the red gown, but made it look positively disagreeable.

Yet the bright gold red, a raw and uncomfortable color indoors, has a delightful effect upon the golf links or tennis court, and the indispensable sweater, when of that color, is pleasing for such use, in spite of the fact that red, even in most cases, an agreeable summer color.

The bright apple green—the old-fashioned green—which is such a beautiful color, is better in town or in the house than in the country. Almost all vivid greens are unpleasant in combination with other bright grasses, and to determine whether the color is a house or a garden seat, or in a woman's dress, the effect is somehow chemical and discordant.

A faint green or grayish green, however, is attractive and harmonious outdoors, and is a very deliciously cooling color in print, organdy or gingham.

All pale and dull blues are pleasant outdoors; pale pink and yellow are also harmonious. White is the most beautiful and effective of all against a background of green grass and trees. White

THE MAYOR TERM WILL OPEN

To Granting License For Corner of Lake Avenue.

Would Annoy Many Women Shoppers—Other Council Matters.

The council may have a fight on its hands on the question of granting a license for a saloon on the corner of Lake avenue and Superior street, in the store now occupied by the Duluth Music company.

Major Culkin received information last week that the store had been leased to one of the big brewing companies and that a saloon would be installed there. This morning he wrote the agents of the building, asking if the information was correct. He stated that the corner was one which is greatly frequented by women and children, and that it is especially popular as a waiting room for women on wet or stormy days. It is the point at which most of the women from the shopping district take a car to their homes, and the majority strongly urged the council not to lease the building for a saloon.

The council will be requested not to grant the license, and it is understood that the mayor will veto such a motion if it is passed. The matter is not likely to come before the council tonight, however, except so far as the mayor's communication is concerned.

Once more the much-discussed tax-mandum bill will be up for consideration and a hot debate is likely to occur. The only bill received by the board of public works was from P. McDonnell for the mixer that he purchased last fall. He offered to sell for $500, and the council accepted the conference of Culkin, Alderman Moore and City Engineer McGillicuddy.

Aldermen Moore and Wilson are two of the most ardent advocates of the purchase. They claim that if Mr. McDonnell is allowed to keep the plant he will have practically a monopoly of the tax-mandum paving business in Duluth and at the same time the Lakes, and can then practically any price he chooses, since he will have the only mixing machine that can be sold here.

Alderman Sauer and some others who oppose the purchase claim that the city would be buying something that would have to be consigned to the scrap heap in a year or two, and are in addition assuming a lawsuit.

The whole matter will be thoroughly thrashed out to-morrow.

Alderman Haven's dance-hall ordinance is due to come up tonight for its second reading. It provides a penalty for anyone who allows dense black smoke to issue from a chimney within the city limits.

President Haven's dance-hall ordinance is also due to come up for discussion. It prohibits the holding of any dancing pavilion within 400 feet of any city park without a license from the common council.

Proof in the will of A. J. Frantz was received in probate court today.

Judge Middlecott has received from the superintendent of the state hospital for the insane a notice of the parole of Henry Behrens.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

First of Series at First Swedish Baptist Church.

The first in a series of revival meetings was held last evening at the First Swedish Baptist church and an impressive service was delivered by Rev. Gustaf Nylander. It was heard with the closest attention of the audience of both young and old people that filled the church auditorium. The speaker was a gifted speaker and his sermons are concise and to the point. He will speak every evening during the series.

Business meeting of the congregation set for Tuesday evening has been postponed in order that the revival meetings may be held every evening.

Fire Sale at the Eagle.

So many people responded to the announcement of the beginning of the great fire and smoke and water sale at the Eagle Clothing company last Saturday that the doors had to be kept locked most of the time to permit sufficient room for those to take up the purchases, and many were unable to gain admittance. Almost as many are attending the sale today, but extra sales have been opened up and Mr. Casimir states that the sale will be a pleasure to handle the crowds to better advantage from now on. The fire has been a serious loss to the firm, but Mr. Casimir has risen to the occasion, and is giving the contents of Duluth and surrounding territory an opportunity to secure bargains, the like of which have never before been offered at the Head of the Lakes. Commencing today and continuing for the balance of the week, the store will remain open till 9 p.m.

His second wife is still at Portland being looked after by the police force in a cursor for a number of months through frequent complaints of residents living in the outside. She is now in the hospital being robed with peculiar regularity. It was discovered that the woman was a gray fox. This discovery seems to have caused a number of persons who were being watched. The fox has now been shot and killed. It was only a few feet from the nest, as around its neck was a brass collar. One of the animal's legs was missing, probably having been severed by the police in a search for the intruder.

Bismarck—F. E. Farnham, a former railroad committee, was an important witness before the senate railroad committee in the investigation that is progressing under the regulation of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Two years ago a maximum coal-rate bill passed both houses and was approved, but the railroad commissioners failed to compel the railroads to accept the new rates. Several meetings were held, but on long hauls it was found that the rate was so low that the companies would be losing a loss. At least the companies made up their minds that the new rate was not enforced.

Several prominent men from the state committee to appear before the committee and it is expected that the investigation will continue several days.

HANDSOME GIRL

Who Masqueraded as Boy For Twenty Years Is Dead.

Her Mother Was an Actress—Her Strange Career.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 27.—Frances La Mouche, or "Frank Williams," a handsome young woman of twenty years who for the most of her life has masqueraded as a boy, died at a hospital here Friday night. The details of "Frank Williams" were in reality Frances La Mouche, who was born in 1884. She was taken to the hospital. Dressed as a boy, she had been doing odd jobs as a porter's assistant at the Grand hotel for several months until she became sick.

Previously to working at the hotel, she had tried to earn a living selling books and canvassing. Her story, told at the hospital and believed, was that she was an actress. Her mother is dead, and her father was accidentally killed in Chicago. She was an orphan, and had been a participant. For a time Frances attended a boy's school at Keeuk, Iowa, where she was a member of the athletic club. She later played in a Catholic institution near Columbus.

Iowa City, Iowa, Feb. 27.—It was three and a half years ago when the name of "Frank Williams" was enunciated as a student at the local high school. He was a boy of the university. "He came from Hampton, Iowa, and on his first visit to the school he was a boy of the most remarkable beauty. He was handsome, and it was learned when from time to time she visited her 'son,' that she was an actress, and that she had the idea of making neither garments for womankind, off to take the girl in her charge and care for her so long as may be necessary.

It was a bitter struggle. After service as a train boy and as bell boy at hotels, "he" went to Cincinnati and into hospital.

It is said that Dr. Mary Walker, recognizing the fact that "he" was a girl, and the idea of making neither garments for womankind, off to take the girl in her charge and care for her so long as may be necessary.

LA FOLLETTE IS IN DOUBT

Wisconsin Awaits Decision Between Governor and Senate.

Milwaukee, Feb. 27.—The coming fourth of March will be a very interesting date to Wisconsin politicians, as it will be decided then whether Governor La Follette will remain in the executive chair or assume the duties of senator. The governor is very anxious to get into the railroad fight down at Washington, but, on the other hand, he desires that the railway reforms demanded by the railroad men in this state shall be enacted into law.

He had hoped that this would be accomplished before the time when senators' duties would call him to Washington. But it is the opinion of the university, "He" came from Hampton, Iowa, and on his first visit to the school he was a boy of the most remarkable beauty. He was handsome, and it was learned when from time to time she visited her "son," that she was an actress, and that she had the idea of making neither garments for womankind, off to take the girl in her charge and care for her so long as may be necessary.

LUTHERANS END THE CONFERENCE

Some Encouraging Reports Received—The Sunday Services.

With Afternoon Session the Annual Gathering Will Be Over.

The Swedish Lutheran conference for Minnesota is finishing up its work and will probably close with this afternoon's session. It may be that the session will have to continue tonight in order to clean up business but this noon, such an extension was not looked for.

The morning meeting today opened with a devotional service at 9 o'clock conducted by Rev. C. D. I. Boman of Stockholm, Minn. After the opening the conference received the report of the Bethesda hospital and the Institute of Deaconesses at St. Paul. The report from this source was very encouraging and pleased the conference greatly. It showed among other things that the board has established at Chisago City a home for the aged during the year and that this home is at the present time in a flourishing condition. The services were discontinued which lasted for the rest of the morning. The matter of how the home for the aged should be managed took up the greatest attention. This has not yet been settled upon but will be today or referred to the executive committee.

The following members of the board of hospital managers were re-elected by acclamation for the three year term: Rev. J. Magny of Volga, Wis., Rev. J. C. K. Kjelstrand of Scandia and John Ogren of Sylvan Lake.

Axel Anderson of Minneapolis and J. A. Jackson of St. Paul were appointed a committee to audit the accounts of the hospital board.

The conference then tendered a vote of thanks to the manager of the Bethesda home, Rev. C. A. Hultkrantz for his faithful and efficient services, and also adopted a resolution of thanks to the agents of the church for the hospitality in granting the use of its church for the conference and of its homes for the entertainment of the delegates.

Rev. P. J. K. Kjelstrand, representing Rev. F. E. Eimund, pastor of Bethany church, in the name of the congregation gave the thanks of the church to the conference for its visit here.

The musical part of the service was excellent. Two numbers were especially fine. These are the ones given by the choir of the church and by the Orchestra Male quartet.

Before the close of the service, Rev. J. A. Krantz, president of the conference, speaking for the conference, expressed his thanks to the church for the hospitality in granting the use of its church for the conference and of its homes for the entertainment of the delegates.

DULUTH SCHOOL GETS LEAST.

There is an impression abroad that the Duluth normal school has been especially favored in the bill providing appropriations for the different normal schools of the state. This is erroneous. The fact is that all the other normal schools have been provided in the past with standing appropriations. Winona and Mankato receive $2,000 each, St. Cloud $2,000, and Moorhead $6,000 while nothing has been provided for Duluth. Hence the current appropriation bill shows Duluth as receiving more money than the others when in fact it receives less. Duluth gets $27,000 for maintenance while the others receive about $35,000 each.

Other items the Duluth school is not treated differently from the others. Each receives about $2000 for care and maintenance of grounds. The amount set opposite Duluth's name also looks large because the figures include an appropriation for a dormitory. This is something absolutely needed. The dormitory of the St. Cloud school recently burned down, and a separate bill is to be introduced to provide funds for rebuilding it. Therefore while a casual reading of the bill might lead to the conclusion that the Duluth school is being better treated than the others in fact it is receiving less. The Duluth delegation will no doubt make this matter clear to the other members of the legislature and insist that the Duluth school shall be placed on an equal footing with the others in the matter of a dormitory.

RAISING THE DEAD.

Recently in a New York theater at the close of a play an actor who had aroused the enthusiasm of the audience declined to appear before the curtain when there was a vociferous demonstration in his favor. Although the curtain was raised again and again he remained seated in the chair where he had spoken the last words of the play. Certain members of the audience resented his action and he was strongly criticised for his seeming indifference to the applause of the spectators.

While this is a general custom and while most actors gladly and quickly respond to such demonstrations of approval, because it is food for their vanity, this actor was in the right. A play is an illusion and it should be carried out to the end in order to create the best effect. The players are not themselves. They are representing other characters. Often when they appear in response to a curtain call they may an otherwise pleasing effect.

An instance in point was furnished at the performance of "The Virginian" given in Duluth recently. Two rustlers or cattle thieves had been captured and after the thrilling preliminaries had been arranged and affecting farewells had been said they were led away to be strung up to trees. The hanging was not visible, but the effect was nearly as realistic as if they had been strangled to death in view of the audience. Then the curtain fell. Applause followed, when the curtain rose and both "dead men" appeared to bow their acknowledgements.

How inappropriate it is when Camille dies of consumption in her lover's arms to appear a few moments after smiling and radiant in the best of health to greet her admirers in the audience. Romeo and Juliet die together in a tomb and in a moment appear before the footlights.

All this is inappropriate and absurd. It shocks every sense of propriety. The patrons of the blood-and-thunder drama have a better sense of the proprieties. When they applaud they applaud the virtue in the play, not the actors. This is shown in the fact that no matter how good an actor the villain may be he is hissed off the stage if he appears to receive applause.

When a play or an actor is deserving of applause it should be given with a will, but when the curtain is dropped on a scene it should remain down.

THE PROTESTORS WERE RIGHT.

When John D. Rockefeller proposed to make a gift to the University of Nebraska for the purpose of erecting a chapel in connection therewith, a considerable controversy arose as to the propriety of the state accepting this gift.

It was held by those in opposition that the acceptance would place the state to a certain extent under obligation to the oil king, and that it was bad policy for school maintained by public funds to accept gifts of this character. On the other side were those who contended that it did not make any difference where the funds come from, it was the part of wisdom to accept all money donated for educational purposes.

The investigation into the North sea incident has resulted in a verdict that the officers of the Russian fleet were justified in becoming frightened, but having been frightened were not justified in firing on the fishing fleet and then running away. The commission evidently took into consideration that the Russians had reason to be scared of the Japs and so were not to be held fully accountable for going crazy.

The wives of old soldiers should be entitled to much consideration as their husbands, and it is proper to treat them as justly while their husbands are alive. So the bill permitting old soldiers' wives to accompany them to the soldiers' home is a just one that should be passed.

The same men who favored the acceptance of the Rockefellers' gift on the ground that it would not place the state under any obligation to the donor now come forward with the claim that the state is under obligation to this man.

The Omaha World-Herald in comment says: "Does any Republican imagine that the people of Kansas will obtain any material aid in their fight against the Standard Oil trust by the sort of sympathy which the Nebraska house of representatives has given them? Does any Republican imagine that the arms of Theodore Roosevelt are to be upheld in any serious battle he is to wage against the monopolies of this country, when men who pretend to uphold the president's arms admit that they dare not criticise the Rockefellers' monopoly because, through the zeal of a number of thoughtless men connected with our state university, the world's greatest monopolist has by a 'liberal' contribution seemingly subordinated an entire state?"

There can be but one verdict on this affair and that is that the state has been subsidized. If a corporation is recognized as pursuing an evil and unlawful course the men who are behind the corporation ought to be held personally responsible. How pusillanimous and crawling is this action of the Nebraska legislature in solving the chief conspirator.

This incident fully proves that money acquired illegitimately and illegally, will tarnish any institution or any individual with which it comes in contact and that state institutions of learning especially should carefully refrain from accepting gifts that carry with them a sense of obligation to men who are in no wise entitled to honor or respect. The rising generation should not be forcibly subjected to any such contaminating and degrading influence.

A WORD OF SELF PRAISE.

Recent important events in this community have raised so much comment as to the superiority and completeness of The Herald's local news service that perhaps a little plauding and self-gratulation may be justifiable.

At the last regular meeting of the West Duluth Commercial club a resolution was unanimously passed especially thanking The Herald for its extensive and intelligent treatment of the annual banquet held by that body on Washington's birthday. Hundreds of extra copies of The Herald's local news service that perhaps a little plauding and self-gratulation may be justifiable.

Coming back a little later, the Duluth Evening Herald, the proprietor of the paper, seemed to capture himself hugely. Writing to the editor of the "Evening Star" he said: "I like to think the excitement was about? Well, the proprietor of the place had overtaxed his capacity with carrying his own goods and it was out for a celebration." He was having it too, along the line of his own ideas.

He then goes on to say: "I like to think the excitement was about? Well, the proprietor of the place had overtaxed his capacity with carrying his own goods and it was out for a celebration." He was having it too, along the line of his own ideas.

KELLEY HDW. CO.

TO LECTURE
IN DULUTH

INTERVENOR
NOW APPEARS

Rev. Herbert S. Bigelow New Complaint Filed In to Be Heard Mining Companies' Case.

This is my first visit to the Head of the Lakes, but as I came directly from the depot to the hotel and have since been too busy to get outside, I have not had time to form any impressions of Duluth or the surrounding country. Rev. Herbert S. Bigelow, pastor of the Vine Street Congregational church at Cincinnati, O., who arrived in the city this morning, and who is to deliver a free lecture this evening at the Unitarian church, under the auspices of the Unity Club, on the topic "Power of Ideas."

Mr. Bigelow went on to say that he expects to remain in the city two or three days and, though he has not yet seen the city, he is quite in old territory and is looking forward to the many points of interest of which he has heard and gained all the information possible about the Duluth city.

This morning Mr. Bigelow will speak at the Duluth Central high school and at the Superior state normal school. Tomorrow evening he will deliver his celebrated lecture on "The Slave Tax," at Oddfellows' hall.

He has been here all the time of business all of the past winter and have devoted all the time that I could to it and could spare from my church work. The Vine Street Congregational church, of which I am a member, is quite an old institution, having been organized in 1821 as an abolition church. One of the articles in its first creed provided that no person should be admitted to membership that believed in the institution of slavery.

We believe that there are some forms of slavery still in existence and which it is our Christian duty to combat. This may be different in the belief of some others, but one would be astounded to learn how many ministers of today are realizing the importance of the social problems and are taking up a discussion of those problems.

Mr. Bigelow, although still a comparatively young man, has won much favorable renown not only through his pastorate of the famous old church at Cincinnati, but through his lectures.

He is also an old newspaper man, having ten years ago been connected with the editorial force of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, while he was attending college at Cleveland.

WOULD QUASH
INDICTMENTS

Mrs. Chadwick's Attorney Springs Surprise on the Court.

Cleveland, Feb. 27.—Attorney J. P. Davy, counsel for Mrs. Chadwick, sprung a surprise on the government to-day by filing a motion to quash the indictment against her. Mrs. Chadwick was the first of the score or more of federal prisoners to be arraigned before Judge Taylor.

Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, was fixed for arguments on the motion. All the indictments involving the one in which Mrs. Chadwick is jointly charged with Cashier A. B. Spear of Oberlin were embraced in the motion. Spear was not present to argue his attorney, George M. Myer, had asked Davy to request a postponement of his arraignment and this was done. He will be arraigned to-morrow morning. Mrs. Chadwick's motion to quash includes his case as well, which will probably be the case.

Scald head is an eczema of the scalp—very severe sometimes, but it can be cured. Drown's Ointment, quick and permanent in its results. At any drug store 50 cents.

EASTWARD FIGHTING

Not Believed to Be Important By the Russians.

Heavy Losses By Russians at Che and Da Passes.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 27, 5:10 p. m.—
Aside from the news of the resumption of the attack of the Japanese attack of Gauton pass that was office has no dispatches from the front and does not attach much significance to the fighting eastward, saying that the forces engaged are comparatively small though they are suffering heavily. The Associated Press dispatches verifying this conjecture. The position at Tsinghetchen, about seven miles east of Mukden, is far advanced in comparison with the general line and the retreat of the Russians was only as far as the general alignment, but the dispatches indicate that the Japanese now concentrating against Bomapada left flank will be heavily reinforced for preparation for extensive fighting. A correspondent of the Associated Press who investigated personally the reports that large forces of Japanese had been in Mongolia, say that not exceed 600 Japanese and 3,000 Chinese bandits.

TWENTY-SECOND YEAR.

THE REVISED STATUTES NOT TO GO INTO EFFECT FOR NEARLY TWO YEARS

Will Be Commendation of House Judiciary Committee.

Control of Telephone and Telegraph Companies
By State.

City Attorney Fesler Talks
to St. Louis County Delegation.

FROM THE HERALD
ST. PAUL BUREAU.

St. Paul, Feb. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—The judiciary committee of the house has agreed that the new code shall not go into effect before Jan. 1, 1907, when the next legislature will be about to open, and mistakes, if any occur, can be readily corrected at once. This will be reported to the house tomorrow—or possibly not until next day—with the code as amended by the committee. A movement has been started, originating outside of the house, but meeting with strong support within, to adopt the judiciary committee's arrangement and pass the code without further ceremony or waste of time, sending it to the senate for its action.

Complete control of telephone and telegraph companies by the state is intended in the bill offered in the house this morning by Representative Frazer of Rochester, which declares telephone and telegraph lines to be common carriers and subject to all the state laws that govern common carriers, including supervisor by the railroad and warehouse commission of the state, which is empowered to prescribe rules for the conduct of the business, and to require the companies to make joint through rates and give connections to other companies when necessary, etc. The companies are to give equal and reasonable rates, and may charge reasonable rates therefor.

Representative Wallace of Minneapolis is the author of a bill prohibiting the use of slot machines that give the things of gambling associated with their use. This includes all machines that purport to give returns greater than the amount of money deposited by the player, and which are broken and destroyed, and stringent rules prescribing the duties of prosecuting and other officers of the law in seeing that the act is enforced are laid down. Cases of the first and other offenses are provided for first offenses and for second offenses the fine cannot be less than $250, or the imprisonment less than one year, and both fine and imprisonment may be imposed. Officers of the law failing to prosecute may be punished in the same manner.

A complete system of bay and straw inspection and weighing by the state, similar to that now governing grain, is proposed in a bill introduced this morning by Representative Carl L. Shaffer of Minneapolis. It provides that the railroads and warehouses commission shall establish public scales at Duluth, St. Paul and Minneapolis, to which all hay must be brought to be inspected and weighed by the inspectors, and weighed by the commission. The roads must furnish the necessary track scales. The commission is to establish grades. The bill appropriates $500 and becomes effective ninety days after its passage.

Representative M. D. Flower of St. Paul introduced a measure to have bonds issued for my the grader. It provides that a man or his wife or his children to the extent of $200 a month shall be exempt from execution when payment is by the month. When payment is made more frequently, proportionate sums are exempt. This would leave the exemption for those paid weekly only about $62.50 per week.

The St. Louis county delegation held a meeting this noon to hear City Attorney Fesler. It is expected that a bill of three bills will be introduced by the city council. One permits the city to issue bonds for constructing a city electric light and power plant. Another permits the city to buy a garbage destruction plant for the disposal of solid incinerations. The third provides for issuing $25,000 in bonds to refund bonds of the Duluth Gas & Water company for the same amount bearing 6 per cent. interest, which become due next year. The bonds are to be paid off in 20 years, and are not strictly obligations of the city, it is necessary to get a law passed to permit their being replaced by bonds bearing a lower rate of interest. All these bills, while they will increase the indebtedness of the city if passed, provide that present legal limitations of bonded indebtedness are to be disregarded.

Representative P. A. Sandford of Kandiyohi county introduced a bill providing that the board of control shall hereafter buy statelymen and supplies for the legislature, and that the state park board be done by the secretary of the state and there have been complaints that contracts have been let without bids, and at higher than regular rates. This is why the bill has been offered.

Representative N. F. Huges of Duluth offered a bill this morning providing a penalty for violation of the statute of standard weights and measures. The Commission.

Possibility That Revised
Code May Not Be Passed.

FROM THE HERALD
ST. PAUL BUREAU.

St. Paul, Feb. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—That the passenger business of the railroads costs them money instead of earning them dividends, was the claim made yesterday afternoon before the house railroad committee by the representatives of the roads. The claim was made in the course of arguments against the bill proposed by A. E. Ware of Northfield, making 2½ cents more in cents than the maximum passenger rates in this state. The bill goes a little farther than this, and requires the railroads to issue mileage books for 500 miles or more, good on any road between stations in this state, and interchangeable further to the extent of 500 miles from the railroads, and that they were introduced not in good faith but in the interests of the railroads. Mr. Ware denied this, however.

When the public hearing on the bill began yesterday afternoon, Mr. Ware explained that he had divided up his bill into two parts, and, furthermore, that they were not introduced for the purpose of getting compensation from Incidentally, he said that somebody had called up Joel P. Heatwole at Northfield and informed him that at the state capitol it was believed that when the bill was introduced it would not be introduced.

APPROVE STAND

Merchants Endorse Mayor's Stand on Lake
Avenue Saloon.

Claim That Two Saloons
on the Corner Are Enough.

Mayor Cullum will have the hearty co-operation of the business men along Superior street in his effort to keep a saloon out of the store at the corner of Lake avenue and Superior street, which is now occupied by the Duluth Music company.

"The mayor cannot oppose it too strongly to suit me," said Mr. Schuster, of the firm of Silberstein & Bondy. "A third saloon on that corner would simply kill business along that end of the street. That is the corner on which most of the women in the shopping district take the car to go home, and there would be no place the women going on that corner and would simply drive the women away from this end of the town.

"I haven't talked with Mr. Freimuth, but I am certain that he would be even more strongly opposed to it than I am."

Mr. Freimuth is in the East at present and could not therefore be reached to give an expression of his views. There were little doubt as to what they would be.

J. M. Giddings also strongly approves of the stand taken by Mayor Cullum. He says:

"I think the mayor is right and most decidedly right. Superior street in the district between First avenue west and First avenue east is becoming the shopping district, and it would be the best place to have a new saloon going in on one of its principal corners. There are already two saloons on the corner of Lake avenue and that is not enough to satisfy the diversity of taste. I sincerely hope the mayor's stand will be endorsed and feel sure that he will have the approval of all of the mercantile interests in that vicinity."

TALKED IN HER SLEEP

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 28.—Gathering from his wife's affection for no other man than her in her sleep, Mann F. Wageley obtained an absolute divorce from Florence Wageley in circuit court.

Mr. Wageley testified that one night, while his wife was asleep at his side, he heard her talking to some one whom she affectionately addressed as "Billy." He listened attentively, and finally learned that the person was the lips of his wife that she loved another man.

Mr. Wageley said that he aroused his wife and told her what he had heard her say. He testified that she denied having said it, and became so angry that he finally left the room, carrying by a large packing box, which she threw after him.

The confessions made in her sleep by Mrs. Wageley were borne out by the evidence of several witnesses.

The defendant says that the goods

Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 28.—Capt. John

W. Enhart, a wealthy vessel man of Detroit and Cleveland, has filed a petition for a divorce against Idia M. Ehrhart, alleging unfaithfulness, and naming "John Doe" as co-respondent.

The Ehrharts were married last May in Erie, Penna. The bride was young and slender, and had been staying in their handsomely furnished apartments in the Austin, on Fulton avenue. Ehrhart now says he has been supporting another establishment for his wife in the English city, and on his return to the United States he has been staying in a downtown hotel.

A few nights ago, according to the petition, Mrs. Ehrhart and "Doe" were caught in the rooms in the Webster, Warrants were sworn out for their arrest, and Mrs. Ehrhart was fined $25 and costs in a justice's court. The warrant against "Doe" has not been served.

At the conclusion of the arguments, Mrs. Ehrhart's attorney refused to divulge the co-respondent's name, but says he is a well-known business man who resides in a downtown hotel.

Mrs. Chadwick, who was in court, pleaded not guilty to the two additional indictments returned against her on Feb. 21, charging conspiracy. Her trial will commence before Judge Tayler, Monday morning, the co-respondent's indictment being taken up first.

ARE GOING SOUTH

Movement of Homeseekers In That Direction
Is Extensive.

Immigration Into Northwest Not Affected, Say Railroad Men.

Although local agents for railroads leading towards the Pacific coast can note no falling off in the movement of people into the Northwest, but report, if anything, an increase in the number of homeseekers traveling over their lines, it is said there is to be a rush of people into the South and Southwest this year. This rush has already started, according to reports from Chicago.

The movement is not confined to the Southwest, but Southern states, like Alabama and Mississippi, are receiving a great deal of attention. It is said that on one line alone 487 passengers, with homeseekers' tickets, have left Chicago in the last six weeks for a single county in Alabama. While this is not a large number, other counties in that state are receiving, yet in all sections where there seem to be openings for Northern people, passengers have been going ever since the winter and spring. The movement into the Southern districts is usually more pronounced during the winter months, while in the North it is heaviest in spring and summer.

Many of the best tracts of land in Southwest Kansas, which have been heretofore devoted to stock raising, are now being divided up into farms. Oklahoma is getting its full share

RECEIPTS LARGE

Last Day For Payment of 1904 Personal Property Tax.

Ten Per Cent Penalty Will Be Attached Hereafter.

Today is the last day for the payment into the county treasury of the personal property taxes for 1904, without any attaching penalty. Beginning tomorrow morning County Treasurer W. A. Holgate will attach a 10 per cent penalty on all the personal property taxes remaining unpaid. All taxes not paid on or about April 15 will be placed in the hands of the sheriff for collection. He will proceed to do so by distress and sale to realize an amount sufficient to cover the amount of taxes and the added cost.

In view of the end of the period for paying the personal property taxes the county treasurer's office has been quite busy in the past few days receiving payments and making out receipts with many persons mailing their taxes with the money mailed to the county treasurer, a certified check being required in such case. As soon as the office force can get around to attend to them, receipts will be mailed the taxpayers.

Formerly it was a custom of the county treasurer's office to advertise conspicuously in the newspapers the last date for the payment of the personal property taxes, before the penalty attached and by that means a great many taxpayers had no matter called to their attention and avoided having to pay the penalty, which in some cases is likely to be several dollars. The public examiner, however, held that the county office had no authority to collect such purchases and it was last year discontinued.

Without the advertising the county may receive more money on the personal property taxes for there will be more delinquents, and, on thousands of cases, the amount will be a small figure. It seems to be quite often the case, however, with small personal property tax owners, that if they forget the date and a penalty attaches, to keep deferring their payments until the sheriff gets the accounts for collection and then there is disposition to pay the debts.

The county officials have always advocated the policy of advertising the last date of payment as conspicuously as possible for the reason that taxpayers are apt to take a lax attitude and not get to the treasurer's office in effect settlement before penalized, and the county thus gets the taxes more promptly, and the various funds are more quickly available.

The idea of advertising the last date of payment of taxes also found favor with the taxpaying public, for when the tax notice comes early in the year it seems to be human nature to put the matter off for a time, and then forgetfully ensues.

Germany Gives Us a Statue.

The statue of Frederick the Great presented to our government by Germany was dedicated a few weeks ago with inspiring ceremonies. It was erected largely as a tribute of friendship between the two countries. It was over fifty years ago that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters was presented to the king of Prussia, and the various funds are more quickly available.

The idea of advertising the last date of payment of taxes also found favor with the taxpaying public, for when the tax notice comes early in the year it seems to be human nature to put the matter off for a time, and then forgetfully ensues.

The persons asked to sign blanks did not, it is said, ever hear of them again. They simply signed their names and the persons who signed them did not know them. Some of those who signed applications for land for Hostetter, it is said, were young girls not more than 17 years old.

WHISKY TRUST BLAMED

For Senate's Failure to Pass

Pure Food Bill.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Considerable ill-feeling is likely to arise over the failure of the Senate to pass the pure food bill. Its ultimate death in that body is ascribed by many of its friends to the whisky trust, otherwise known as the "bottled-in-bond board," which exerted its powerful influence to prevent the bill being amended so as to include its products.

The national association of wholesale liquor dealers favored the passage of the bill if it could be amended so as to place all whisky on the same footing, and thus limit the bottling-in-bond pools. Against this proposition, the whisky trust resolutely set its face, and certain of those most active in pushing the bill in its present form also opposed any amendment which would touch bottling-in-bond pools. The result was that the bill was not passed. There is little doubt that had the whisky trust permitted the bill to be amended so as to include bottled-in-bond whisky it would have passed by a large majority.

The Misery of Piles

Thousands know it and thousands daily submit, through their ignorance, to the torture of the knife.

They are ignorant of the fact that there is an internal remedy that will positively and painlessly cure.

Dr. Perrin's Pile Specific

The Internal Remedy

strikes at the prime causes of piles—indigestion, congestion of the liver and constipation. These causes are removed and removed for good. Get a bottle today and see how well it proves the truth of this statement.

For dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, biliousness, catarrh of the stomach and kindred ailments it is the greatest remedy that has ever yet benefited mankind.

When these troubles are taken care of and cured, piles will be a thing of the past.

Observations taken by the local weather bureau shows that the ice field at the end of Lake Superior extends out in the lake for a distance of from eight to ten miles and has an average thickness of 18 inches at the present time. A year ago this time the ice field extended out 10 miles from Duluth and the average thickness of the ice was 26 inches. The average thickness of the bay ice is 10 to 10 inches less than that at this time.

From the outer edge of the present ice field there is a layer of open water and one observes at that point says that aside from occasional drifting fields of ice there is open water as far as can be seen.

With the possible few short periods of cold weather that may be expected on cold days now and in general spring there is not believed that there will be any more heavy formation of ice.

As it is not expected that the northwesterly may be expected to soon put in an appearance there is good reason to figure on the possibility of the outer edge of the present field.

It would take continued high winds from the northwesterly to move the field to an extent toward this point, unless the present warm weather continues for some days longer.

SHOULD DISCRIMINATE.

The New York World treats as a joke the pronouncement of Dr. Osler concerning the age at which men cease to be useful. The Globe of the same city says it is an expression of opinion that the doctor has long entertained. A local physician says it is evidence that Dr. Osler is a paranoid; while he is a great physician and author he has allowed his mind to dwell on this one subject so long that he is insane on the topic.

But whether a joke, the well-studied-out theory of a sound mind or the result of dementia does not make much difference. The same idea in various forms has been promulgated from time immemorial.

History shows that the best work of the leading thinkers of the world has been done after they were 40 years of age, while but few men accomplish much in the accumulation of wealth until after they are that old. There have been notable exceptions, but that has been the rule.

However, it is true that younger men as a rule are of more benefit to humanity. As age creeps on the average man becomes conservative. The desire for personal gain increases with the years and the man beyond middle life daces and cares less for the welfare of his fellows. Selfishness creeps in along with wisdom and it is selfish conservatism that follows age.

But there are notable exceptions, and these are the men whose hearts remain young despite their bodily decline. And it is to these men that the world owes more than to all the others combined, whether young or old. A list of prominent men in the public life of America who are beyond 60 years of age published since the Osler incident shows a large number of names of men who could well be spared and whose taking off would be of real benefit to the public, but there are a few on the list whose deaths would be a public calamity. The old saying that a man is as old as he is truthful, but a better saying would be that a man is as young as his heart is. So when the time comes to begin the chloro-forming process, it would be well to discriminate between those who have not outlived their usefulness to humanity and those whose only concern is self.

SQUANDERING PUBLIC FUNDS.

The Minneapolis Journal recently read the State of Nebraska a little lecture as follows:

"The Minnesota legislature went on record very quickly in the matter of voting in the affirmative to spend $10,000 for the purchase of a suitable testimonial for the new battleship Minnesota. Nebraska should put its ear to the ground and listen to the Gophers' vote when it comes to honoring the 'pride of the navy.' Only a few days ago the Cornhuskers had an opportunity to say yes or no to a proposition to spend $5,000 to buy a suitable silver service for the Nebraska, the battleship recently launched on the Pacific coast; but the solons of that state did not come to the front. Nebraska is a rich state nowadays, and there is no need of the economy that savors of niggardliness."

No, do not be niggardly. The sum of $10,000 only represents the earnings of one workingman for twenty years. It is not the workingman who pays it into the state treasury, but it is he that earns it for those who do pay it in. Ten thousand dollars is not much for the state to spend to provide silver-plated fol-de-rol for the use of naval officers, compared to the millions that the nation is squandering on war playthings, but $10,000 would build ten miles of good road and help to develop the wilderness of Northern Minnesota."

Ten thousand dollars is not much when the plethoric treasury of the state is considered, but a large number of these small sums spent for non-essentials put together make a large amount in the aggregate, and the result is that the legislature can neither provide money for worthy objects nor reduce taxation, which is excessively high.

It is easy to be generous with other people's money but it would be difficult to find authority in the state constitution for many of the appropriations made by the state legislature, including this $10,000 bagatelle which it went on record so quickly in favor of and which the Minneapolis Journal so earnestly commands.

It does not pay to be niggardly, but in being generous with public funds it is also well to be just.

SELF RELIANCE.

A story is related by the Herald of Ontonagon, Mich., which shows what a man can do when he has the will. Dave Kantinen, a Finnish homesteader in the vicinity of the Sleeping river, is located upon a quarter section of land where he lives alone, his nearest neighbors being several miles away. He has succeeded in clearing quite a patch of ground.

During the summer months he labors diligently in raising vegetables and other stuff for lasting him through the cold months and incidentally battles with the mosquitoes. In winter he keeps busy clearing his land, cutting wood, poles and logs and is lulled to sleep by the music of the wolves. He secured a horse, but lacked the necessary funds for procuring a harness and a conveyance. But this did not deter him from bringing the animal into use. He brought his own ingenuity into play and fashioned an outfit similar to those used in his native land among the common people. The collar is wood, dexterously carved out to fit the horse's shoulders. The hames are of the same material and are fastened together with buckskin thongs. Over the top of these and extending a couple of feet above the animal's neck is a heavy wooden bow for holding the thills in place and by the use of more buckskin the harness is complete with the exception of the bridle and reins, the latter being rope and the former narrow strips of buckskin, the only modern contrivance about the affair being the bit.

The harness called for a conveyance, but here also the man was equal to the occasion. He made a pair of bobsleigs, the only iron upon them being the hooks to which the thills are fastened and he made these. The sleighs are strong and well-built and with this novel outfit Kantinen has succeeded in hauling several thousand feet of logs to the Firesteel river and even brings poles to the cedar yard in Ontonagon, a distance of fourteen or fifteen miles.

But this man would not have been able to do these things unless he had some previous training. He was brought up in a country where the era of specialism has not yet made much progress, where the farmers and workingmen depend more upon their own handicraft and less upon outsiders for the things they need.

In this day of cheap manufacture it is really a waste of time for the farmer to make his own tools and appliances unless, as perhaps in the case of this Finnlander, he has plenty of time, but no money. But it cannot be denied that the man who has had a general education in the use of tools has a great advantage over the one who knows nothing thereof. It creates within him a spirit of self-reliance that adds to his chances of success.

Time was in this country when the farmer and his sons made their own plows, harrows, wagons, sleighs, killed their own cattle, cured their own hams, while mother and the girls spun wool, weaved cloth, made butter, cheese, sausage, headcheese, put up fruit, made their own and the men's clothes, and prepared or manufactured nearly everything needed to eat or wear. These were the kind of men and women who transformed America from a wilderness to a garden.

Some of the boys and girls who were brought up in this way later became specialists and they were better specialists for having learned the use of tools.

Under present conditions the child learns little of these things and therefore is less self-reliant and consequently hampered in the race for success. To supply this lack manual training departments are being established in connection with the public school system and the movement should be hastened. Every child should be taught how to depend upon his own resources if need be.

ADVISES A BACKWARD STEP.

It is safe to say that there is no demand from the people of Minnesota that the power to select members of the railroad and warehouse commission be returned to the governor. Representative Rachie of Lac qui Parle has introduced such a bill, but it is to be hoped that it will not receive a favorable report from the committee.

It is true that the commission has given an unsatisfactory service during recent years, but not less satisfactory than some appointive commissions that previously existed. The sole trouble with the present plan is that the nominations of the commissioners are made in state convention and dictated by the railroads. Consequently they are more eager to serve the roads than the people.

If the legislature will provide for the direct popular nomination of all state officers this evil will be overcome. The railroads will then be only as powerful as the number of votes they can muster.

The judgment of a majority of all the people is better than that of any single individual, and when the people are permitted to choose their own nominees there is little doubt that the right kind of men will be chosen. Instead of endeavoring to have the legislature take a backward step the gentleman from Lac qui Parle would do better to devote his energies toward the enactment of a direct primary law.

"The big-footed woman who has been a companion since we were in the next few years, if we may judge from present indications," said George E. Hadley at the Spalding, Mr. Hadley's home is in Chico, Calif., a representative of a large Eastern shoe house.

"Perhaps my expression 'a few years' is placing too much of emphasis upon the fact that the woman is growing older, the next generation of women are to have big feet, not so very big, perhaps, but bigger than those will object to them, either."

"This announcement may not be hailed with delight by some, but we prefer that."

West DuluthWORK ON DOCKS

Three Structures Under-going Extension For Spring Business.

Sand Sucker at Work at Boston Coal Dock.

The work on dockage in and around West Duluth is assuming rather extensive proportions and the work, most of which was begun last fall, is nearing completion. The $300,000 extension to the Boston coal dock at Thirty-seventh avenue west and the bay front is getting along nicely and the work of filling in the dock has begun. This dock is having 1,450 feet added to its length, making it in all 2,350 feet long and 32 feet wide. The business here handled at the dock for the last few years was too much for its 900x350 feet area and the dock was extended to the dock line. A sand sucker is now at work removing earth from the bottom of the bay about 160,000 cubic yards of earth will be removed. The dock will be ready for the spring work.

On the Mesabi ore dock, just east of the Boston coal dock, the work is going on rapidly. The dock is nearly all of the underwater work has been done. The caps and upper piling are well under way on most of the dock, but on the outer end the caps are still to go on.

The Zenith blast furnace dock is getting along well also. Each of these docks mentioned will be in commission some time during the approaching spring.

WEST DULUTH BRIEFS.

The dance given by the Liberty club tomorrow night, Great Eastern hall, admission 50c. Bluet's orchestra. T. Hallows of West Duluth will leave today for Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. Hallows has been stationery engineer for the Red Cliff Lumber company for years and much regret is expressed at West Duluth over his departure. He is not taking his family with him yet until he gets settled, but expects soon to send for them.

The West Duluth Assembly club will give a dance tonight in Schell & Wade's hall.

The following births have taken place in West Duluth within the past two days:—A daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rehbein, 49 North Fifty-seventh avenue; and a son to Mr. and Mrs.

MISSING HEIR

Wealthy Ontario Farmer Bequeaths Estate to His Son.

The Son Was Last Heard From In This City.

Unaware of the fact that a fortune is awaiting him back in Canada, a man named Benjamin Ross is being sought for by the lawyers who have charge of his father's estate.

Yesterday afternoon Chief Troyer received word from a firm of lawyers in the town of Brampton, Ont., asking for information concerning a man named Benjamin Ross. They stated that Ross had left Brampton about fifteen years ago, and when last heard from was located in the United States.

They said that the missing man was the heir of the estate of William Marshall Ross, a retired farmer living in the town of Brampton.

The dead man owned a large farm on the outskirts of the town of Brampton, Ontario, Canada. The property together with personal property left to him, he bequeathed his entire estate to his son, Benjamin Ross, the son of William Marshall Ross of Brampton, Ont., should therefore apply to Chief Troyer.

An important matter which had to be left over until the next conference was the question of the amount of the estate. This has been a principal question of contention in the conference, and the various ways suggested of regulating the English mission, but there is such a diversity of opinion that it could not be settled, and without a good deal more discussion, and this the conference did not have time to give the subject, so it was left over.

A number of appropriations for missions were made and petitions granted from various countries, and the amount given from contribution toward schools, claiming that they are too poor to handle it.

At a meeting of the conference yesterday evening were spent in cleaning up matters which had been left unfinished from other days. The conference acquitted itself well in the way of order and cleaned matters up pretty thoroughly.

ACCOMPLICE MURDERED

Is Theory Caused By Disappearance of Joe Hartman.

DUE TO GROSS NEGLIGENCE

Authorities Will Prosecute

Those Responsible For Church Disaster.

St. Paul, Feb. 28.— (Special to The Herald.)—Another sensation was started today in connection with the hunt for the murderer of Christian Schindeldecker hacked to pieces in his butcher shop Feb. 18. Ed Gottschalk, the man charged with the murder, and Joe Hartman is being sought as an accomplice. Charles Hartman, father of Joe Hartman, insists that Gottschalk also murdered Joe and threw his body into the river. Young Hartman and Gottschalk were very friendly, and the two men were close father. They often went fishing together. On the Sunday following the murder, the pair were fishing, and Monday Hartman disappeared. This combination of circumstances has led Charles Hartman to the belief that Gottschalk committed a double murder.

numerous aspirants for this place, the discussion was not concerning the fitness of the individuals, but the qualifications of the various gentlemen who composed that waiting list, nor the pledges of the legatees, but the qualifications of the church, to whom it could stand best with the church monarchy: as to whom it would like to use for this position; as to who would make the best fit for the state.

Of the injured there are ten in the hospitals, suffering from fractured limbs, broken bones and concussions, but none of them is believed to be fatally injured.

The greatest number of the injured are removed to their homes and their injuries are of a minor character. Death in nearly every case was due to suffocation.

THE WINNING STROKE

If more than ordinary skill in playing brings the honors of the game to the winning player, so exceptional merit in a remedy ensures the commendation of the well informed, and as a reasonable amount of outdoor life and recreation is conducive to the health and strength, so does a perfect laxative tend to one's improvement in cases of constipation, biliousness, headaches, etc. It is all important, however, in selecting a laxative, to choose one of known quality and excellence, like the ever pleasant Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., a laxative which sweetens and cleanses the system effectually, when a laxative is needed, without any unpleasant after effects, as it acts naturally and gently on the internal organs, simply assisting nature when nature needs assistance, without griping, irritating or debilitating the internal organs in any way, as it contains nothing of an objectionable or injurious nature. As the plants which are combined with the figs in the manufacture of Syrup of Figs are known to physicians to act most beneficially upon the system, the remedy has met with their general approval as a family laxative, a fact well worth considering in making purchases.

It is because of the fact that SYRUP OF FIGS is a remedy of known quality and excellence, and approved by physicians that has led to its use by so many millions of well informed people, who would not use any remedy of uncertain quality or inferior reputation. Every family should have a bottle of the genuine on hand at all times, to use when a laxative remedy is required. Please to remember that the genuine Syrup of Figs is for sale in bottles of one size only, by all reputable druggists, and that full name of the company—California Fig Syrup Co., is plainly printed on the front of every package. Regular price, 50c per bottle.

ALARMED FRIENDS

Of Missing Youth Found Him In Workhouse.

St. Paul, Feb. 28.—Charles Verrill, aged 20, student at the Minnesota university and son of a prominent contractor in Minneapolis, who caused consternation among his friends and family by disappearing Saturday, was found by the St. Paul police in the workhouse yesterday.

Verrill, who gave his name as Charles Morris, was arrested Saturday night at Sixth and Robert streets for interfering with an officer and was sent to the workhouse today for ten days.

The young man came to St. Paul Saturday afternoon to visit some friends, and was arrested Saturday night after 8 o'clock. He was waiting for a car at Sixth and Robert streets, when an officer arrested Max C. Von Eckley, who brought the arrest un-wanted and unheralded and was sent to the station.

When he failed to come home Saturday night the father of the young man started to search for him and the police of surrounding cities were notified.

Verrill returned to Minneapolis yesterday afternoon, accompanied by his father, who paid his fine.

MAY HAVE TROUBLE

Lake Engineers May Mix Things Up With Demands.

G. A. Tomlinson Returns and Talks of Navigation Opening.

G. A. Tomlinson, the vessel owner of Duluth, who has just returned from Paris, London and the states, in speaking of the vessel situation, said that the disposition existing among vessel men in the East is to seize the first opportunity of starting their boats out for the season's business.

"Of course," said Mr. Tomlinson, "the matter of how soon the season will open is problematical, but I find it the desire of vesselmen to push business to the limit this coming season. It is generally believed that if labor troubles are escaped this year the total water shipment of oil will reach 30,000,000 tons. But no contracts have been made yet, and I do not believe any will be made for a time until it is found out how the Lake Carriers' association will come out with the unions. I cannot say, of course, what we would do if we were offered a big block of ore to move, but I do not look for any contracts for some little time.

Mr. Tomlinson said the Lake Carriers' association has thirteen units to be represented, and that they will get through with them cannot be forecasted. I do not believe there is any danger of trouble with any union, except the engineers, who may have trouble with that union either, but it seems to me that is the only case where there may be a possibility of dissension. The engineers have their annual meeting authorized their members to make their contracts individually with the vessel owners, and also to make certain demands which may cause trouble.

For instance on the largest type of ore, the smelter unit which is to be affected with the Sault Ste. Marie, the demand wages for engineers to be $15 a month, as against $12 heretofore, and the demand that the engineers be paid instead of two, as formerly. Certain other demands regarding laying up, etc., which are not important.

Mr. Tomlinson is building his boats this winter, one of which was launched in December. On March 1, he expects two more to be launched, and on April 1 two more at these places to be launched. The first boat to be launched will be the James E. Davidson, the Sault Ste. Marie, the second in honor of a lode owned by T. F. Cole and others in Northern Minnesota.

Mr. Tomlinson took a flying trip across the pond since leaving Duluth and was entertained by Mrs. Tomlinson, who has remained in New York for a few weeks.

SWAYNE ASKS AN ALLOWANCE

Sufficient to Cover Trial Expenses and Attorney's Fees.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Immediately after the senate convened at 11 o'clock today, Mr. Kean, from the committee on Interstate commerce, reported a resolution authorizing that committee to conduct an inquiry into railroad rates during the approaching congressional recess, and it was referred to the committee on contingent expenses.

The weather was so bad that he could not get a hearing, and when he did he was given no name merely told to ask for "the widow" and he would find her.

The address is the Kendrick block, where there are dozens of offices.

Usually a fine young bride, Willsky went back to his hotel.

Worry over the loss of the bride has unbalanced his mind.

Insanity of insanity has been diagnosed him in probate court and he will be examined for deportation to California.

QUARLES DISQUALIFIED

But Will Be Appointed Judge After March 4.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Senators of Wisconsin will be unable to accept the district judgeship at Milwaukee under the nomination which the president sent to the senate. Under clause 2, section 6 of article I of the Constitution, he is disqualified. It provides that "no senator or representative shall during the time for which he was elected be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time."

When his nomination reached the senate Mr. Quarles hastened to the White House and told the president that he had voted for the bill which became a law, making the salaries of district judges $6,000 a year, an increase of $1,000, and that he was disqualified for appointment at this time under the provision of the Constitution above quoted.

His disqualification will cease March 4, when his term as United States senator expires, and the president will then send his nomination to the senate.

DON'T EXPERIMENT

You Will Make No Mistake If You Follow This Duluth Citizen's Advice.

Never neglect your health.

If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, etc., and are not too nervous, it's time to act and not time to experiment.

These are all symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should use a remedy which is known to cure these troubles.

Doan's Kidney Pills is that remedy, and if you wish to be cured of kidney disease without experimenting, do not fail to use it. Others have been cured and are permanently well.

Why not follow the advice of a Duluth citizen and take Doan's?

Edy, J. Hoppman, mineralogist, living at 421 First street west, Duluth, Minn., has the best proof of the value of Doan's Kidney Pills that can be given is that since using this remedy for a bad attack of kidney trouble, some six years ago, I have not found it necessary to use any medicine at all for kidney trouble. At the time when I began using them I suffered from sharp, aching pains in the back and loins. The kidney secretions were disordered, and the trout, told on my general health.

Kidney trouble might prevent relief and a final cure, and the permanence of the results thoroughly proves that this remedy can be depended upon.

SERIOUSLY MENACED

Kuropatkin Will Immediately Withdraw Army to Tie Pass.

Japs Take Da Pass After the Most Desperate Fighting.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 28, 6:55 p.m.

—The Associated Press hears from a high source that Gen. Kuropatkin considers his position on the Shkhe river to be menaced to such an extent by Gen. Kurok's success on the left flank as to necessitate the immediate withdrawal of his army to Tie pass, and has so advised Emperor Nicholas.

The communication was referred to the committee on judiciary.

The anti-polygamy resolution introduced by Mr. Dubois was then laid before the senate and Mr. Kearns addressed the committee.

When Mr. Kearns concluded, the Indian appropriation bill was laid before the senate and the committee amendment was considered. Mr. Stone indicated a purpose of making a point of order against the amendment.

Russian Headquarters, Huan Mountain, Manchuria, Feb. 28.—The Japanese were repelled at dawn yesterday along the whole eastern front, and Da pass was taken after fighting of the most stubborn character.

An engagement simultaneously took place in the rear of the front extending almost twenty miles from the extreme left, eastward of Kandolestan, where the Japanese opened a heavy artillery fire to the district of Laoilman.

The Japanese advanced with some difficulty, fighting with stubborn resistance.

The capture of Da pass opens the road to Fushun, east of Mukden and Tie pass, and the Russians are gathering a strong force to meet the Japanese at Tie pass, the line of communication.

The Japanese attack was supported by a strong park of artillery, a reserve of seven batteries being discovered east of Kandolestan, which is about fifteen miles from Liao Yang.

The Japanese now hold strong lines, extending from the southwest to the northeast, partly eastward of the Taiten river and threatening the Russian left flank.
